And it didn't end up happily ever after.

And she didn't discover he was the right one all along.

And they didn't get there just in the nick of time

Or get what they deserved.

Poetic justice wasn't to be had.

They didn't become wise, or better people or appreciate what they had.

But they did wake up the next day

And it wasn't all just a dream.

(a) Craft a discursive, imaginative or persuasive response inspired by the extract above.
