

2024 HIGHER SCHOOL CERTIFICATE TRIAL EXAMINATION

English Advanced

Paper 2 — Modules

General Instructions

- Reading time – 5 minutes
- Working time – 2 hours
- Write using black pen
- Write your student number/name on each page

Total marks:
60*Section I – 20 marks (pages 2–4)

- Attempt Question 1
- Allow about 40 minutes for this section

Section II – 20 marks (pages 5–7)

- Attempt Question 2
- Allow about 40 minutes for this section

Section III – 20 marks (page 8)

- Attempt Question 3
- Allow about 40 minutes for this section

This paper MUST NOT be removed from the examination room

STUDENT NUMBER/NAME:

Section I – Module A: Textual Conversations

20 marks

Attempt Question 1

Allow about 40 minutes for this section

Answer the question on a new page or writing booklet, if provided.

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate understanding of how composers are influenced by another text's concepts and values
 - evaluate the relationships between texts and contexts
 - organise, develop and express ideas using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form
-

Question 1 (20 marks)

How have the resonances and dissonances between the pair of prescribed texts studied developed your understanding of each text?

Refer in detail to the prescribed texts.

If you studied poetry, refer in detail to any TWO poems for each poet.

Module A prescribed texts are listed on pages 3 and 4.

The Module A prescribed texts are:

- Shakespearean Drama and Film

- William Shakespeare, King Richard III
and
- Al Pacino, Looking for Richard

- Prose Fiction and Film

- Virginia Woolf, Mrs Dalloway
and
- Stephen Daldry, The Hours

- Prose Fiction and Prose Fiction

- Albert Camus, The Stranger
and
- Kamel Daoud, The Meursault Investigation

- Poetry and Drama

- John Donne, John Donne: A Selection of His Poetry

The prescribed poems are:

- * The Sunne Rising
- * The Apparition
- * A Valediction: forbidding mourning
- * This is my playes last scene
- * At the round earths imagin'd corners
- * If poysonous mineralls
- * Death be not proud
- * Hymne to God my God, in my sicknesse

and

- Margaret Edson, W;t

Module A prescribed texts continue on page 4

The Module A prescribed texts (continued)

• Poetry and Film

- John Keats, The Complete Poems

The prescribed poems are:

- * La Belle Dame sans Merci
- * To Autumn
- * Bright star! would I were steadfast as thou art
- * Ode to a Nightingale
- * Ode on a Grecian Urn
- * When I have fears that I may cease to be
- * The Eve of St Agnes, XXIII

and

- Jane Campion, Bright Star

• Poetry and Poetry

- Sylvia Plath, Ariel

The prescribed poems are:

- * Daddy
- * Nick and the Candlestick
- * A Birthday Present
- * Lady Lazarus
- * Fever 103°
- * The Arrival of the Bee Box

and

- Ted Hughes, Birthday Letters

The prescribed poems are:

- * Fulbright Scholars
- * The Shot
- * A Picture of Otto
- * Fever
- * Red
- * The Bee God

• Shakespearean Drama and Prose Fiction

- William Shakespeare, The Tempest

and

- Margaret Atwood, Hag-Seed

End of Section I

Section II — Module B: Critical Study of Literature

20 marks

Attempt ONE question from Questions 2 (a) – 2 (l)

Allow about 40 minutes for this section

Answer the question on a new page or writing booklet, if provided.

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate an informed understanding of the ideas expressed in the text
 - evaluate the text's distinctive language and stylistic qualities
 - organise, develop and express ideas using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form
-

Question 2 (a) – Prose Fiction – Jane Austen, Emma (20 marks)

How has Jane Austen used the conventions of prose fiction to explore ideas of social structures in Regency England?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (b) – Prose Fiction – Charles Dickens, Great Expectations (20 marks)

How has Charles Dickens used the conventions of prose fiction to explore ideas of social structures in Victorian England?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (c) – Prose Fiction – Kazuo Ishiguro, An Artist of the Floating World (20 marks)

How has Kazuo Ishiguro used the conventions of prose fiction to explore ideas of challenges to social structures in post-World War II Japan?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (d) – Poetry – T S Eliot, T S Eliot: Selected Poems (20 marks)

How has T S Eliot used the conventions of poetry to explore ideas of personal and social challenges in early twentieth century England?

In your response, refer to Preludes and ONE other poem studied.

The prescribed poems are:

- * The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock
- * Preludes
- * Rhapsody on a Windy Night
- * The Hollow Men
- * Journey of the Magi

OR

Question 2 (e) – Poetry – David Malouf, Earth Hour (20 marks)

How has David Malouf used the conventions of poetry to explore the ways in which everyday settings and experiences can generate insights?

In your response, refer to Ladybird and ONE other poem studied.

The prescribed poems are:

- * Aquarius
- * Radiance
- * Ladybird
- * A Recollection of Starlings: Rome '84
- * Eternal Moment at Poggia Madonna
- * Towards Midnight
- * Earth Hour
- * Aquarius II

OR

Question 2 (f) – Drama – Henrik Ibsen, A Doll's House (20 marks)

How has Henrik Ibsen used the conventions of drama to explore the ideas of challenges to social structures in late nineteenth century Denmark?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (g) – Drama – Dylan Thomas, Under Milk Wood (20 marks)

How has Dylan Thomas used the conventions of drama to explore the ways in which everyday settings and experiences can generate insights?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (h) – Nonfiction – Edmund de Waal, The Hare with Amber Eyes (20 marks)

How has Edmund de Waal used the conventions of nonfiction prose to explore the ways in which people are shaped by their responses to social and historical forces?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (i) – Nonfiction – Vladimir Nabokov, Speak, Memory (20 marks)

How has Vladimir Nabokov used the conventions of nonfiction prose to explore the ways in which people are shaped by their responses to social and historical forces?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (j) – Film – George Clooney, Good Night, and Good Luck (20 marks)

How has George Clooney used the conventions of film to explore the ways in which people are shaped by their responses to social and historical forces?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (k) – Media – Gillian Armstrong, Unfolding Florence (20 marks)

How has Gillian Armstrong used the conventions of her chosen media to explore the ways in which people are shaped by their responses to social and historical forces?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

OR

Question 2 (l) – Shakespearean Drama – William Shakespeare, King Henry IV, Part 1 (20 marks)

How has William Shakespeare used the conventions of drama to explore the ways in which people are shaped by their responses to social and historical forces?

In your response, make close reference to the prescribed text.

End of Section II

Section III — Module C: The Craft of Writing20 marks*Attempt Questions 3*Allow about 40 minutes for this section

Answer the question on a new page or writing booklet, if provided.

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- craft language to address the demands of the question
- use language appropriate to audience, purpose and context to deliberately shape meaning

Question 3 (20 marks)

She has a single photograph of him. She tucked it into a brown envelope on which she'd written clippings and hid the envelope between the pages of Perennials for the Rock Garden, where no one else would ever look.

She's preserved this photo carefully, because it's almost all she has left of him. It's black and white, taken by one of those boxy, cumbersome flash cameras from before the war, with their accordion-pleat nozzles and their well-made leather cases that looked like muzzles, with straps and intricate buckles. The photo is of the two of them together, her and this man, on a picnic. Picnic is written on the back, in pencil – not his name or hers, just picnic. She knows the names; she doesn't need to write them down.

They're sitting under a tree; it might have been an apple tree; she didn't notice the tree much at the time. She's wearing a white blouse with the sleeves rolled to the elbow and a wide skirt tucked around her knees. There must have been a breeze, because of the way the shirt is blowing up against her; or perhaps it wasn't blowing, perhaps it was clinging; perhaps it was hot. It was hot. Holding her hand over the picture, she can still feel the heat coming up from it, like the heat from a sun-warmed stone at midnight.

Excerpt from The Blind Assassin
MARGARET ATWOOD

- | | | |
|-----|--|----|
| (a) | How does the writer craft the piece of writing to show the unreliable nature of memory? In your response, refer to specific language choices which contribute to the effectiveness of conveying this idea. | 10 |
| (b) | Craft an imaginative or discursive piece of writing which explores the unreliable nature of memory. | 10 |

End of paper

Question 1 continued

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate understanding of how composers are influenced by another text's concepts and values
- evaluate the relationships between texts and contexts
- organise, develop and express ideas using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form

Criteria	Marks
• Examines skilfully the ways the ways identified resonances and dissonances have developed an understanding of both texts • Demonstrates a well-informed understanding of context, language, form and ideas using well-selected and detailed references to the prescribed texts • Composes an insightful response using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form	17–20
• Examines effectively the ways identified resonances and dissonances have developed an understanding of both texts • Demonstrates an informed understanding of context, language, form and ideas using detailed references to the prescribed texts • Composes an effective response using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form	13–16
• Examines the ways identified resonances and dissonances have developed an understanding of both texts • Demonstrates a sound understanding of context, language, form and ideas using references to the prescribed texts • Composes a sound response using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form	9–12
• Describes some aspects of the prescribed text(s) • Demonstrates some understanding of context, language, form and ideas using limited textual references • Composes a limited response to the question	5–8
• Attempts to describe aspects of the prescribed text(s) • Attempts to compose a response to the question	1–4

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- demonstrate an informed understanding of the ideas expressed in the text
- evaluate the text's distinctive language and stylistic qualities
- organise, develop and express ideas using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form

Criteria	Marks
• Demonstrates a skilful and perceptive understanding of the text and the question • Demonstrates a perceptive understanding of how the text has been crafted in terms of language, context, form and ideas supported by well-selected and detailed analysis of textual references • Composes a thoughtful and sustained response using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form	17–20
• Demonstrates an effective understanding of the text and the question • Demonstrates an informed understanding of how the text has been crafted in terms of language, context, form and ideas supported by sound analysis of appropriate textual references • Composes an effective response using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form	13–16
• Demonstrates a sound understanding of the text and the question • Demonstrates a sound understanding of how the text has been crafted in terms of language, context, form and ideas supported by some textual references • Composes a sound response using language appropriate to audience, purpose and form	9–12
• Presents basic ideas relating to the question • Demonstrates some understanding of the language, context, form and ideas with limited textual support • Composes a limited response	5–8
• Composes a response • Attempts to explore aspects of the prescribed text	1–4

Question 3 continued

- (a) How does the writer craft the piece of writing to show the unreliable nature of memory? In your response, refer to specific language choices which contribute to the effectiveness of conveying this idea. 10

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- craft language to address the demands of the question
- use language appropriate to audience, purpose and context to deliberately shape meaning

Criteria	Marks
• Explains with confidence and flair how the writer crafted the piece of writing to show the unreliable nature of memory • Demonstrates a perceptive and skilful understanding and explanation of how language choices are used to show the unreliability of memory • Demonstrates skilful control of language and structure	9–10
• Explains competently how the writer crafted the piece of writing to show the unreliable nature of memory • Demonstrates a competent understanding and explanation of how language choices are used to show the unreliability of memory • Demonstrates competent control of language and structure	7–8
• Explains soundly how the writer crafted the piece of writing to show the unreliable nature of memory • Demonstrates a sound understanding and explanation of how language choices are used to show the unreliability of memory • Demonstrates sound control of language and structure	5–6
• Provides some discussion of the unreliable nature of memory • Refers to some general features of the piece of writing • Demonstrates limited control of language and structure	3–4
• Provides some general information about their writing in Question 3 (a)	1–2

Question 3 continues on the next page

Question 3 continued

- (b) Craft an imaginative or discursive piece of writing which explores the unreliable nature of memory.

10

Your answer will be assessed on how well you:

- craft language to address the demands of the question
- use language appropriate to audience, purpose and context to deliberately shape meaning

Criteria	Marks
• Composes an engaging piece of writing that responds perceptively and skilfully to the focus of the question • Makes effective language choices to show the unreliable nature of memory • Demonstrates skilful control of language and structure appropriate to audience, purpose, context and form	9–10
• Composes a competent piece of writing that responds effectively to the focus of the question • Makes competent language choices to show the unreliable nature of memory • Demonstrates effective control of language and structure appropriate to audience, purpose, context and form	7–8
• Composes a piece of writing that responds adequately to the question • Makes sound language choices to show the unreliable nature of memory • Demonstrates some control of language and structure appropriate to audience, purpose, context and form	5–6
• Composes a limited piece of writing that attempts to respond to the question • Demonstrates variable control of language and structure	3–4
• Attempts to compose a piece of writing with some relevance to the question	1–2